Referral

Program participants are mainly identified through a self-referral process by putting in a request to speak with Amadeusz. Individuals can also be referred by those working within the institution, including but not limited to, correctional officers, volunteer coordinators, social workers, psychiatrists, community partners, and members of the Amadeusz staff team.

Intake/Assessment

A program facilitator meets with the referred individual to determine program eligibility.

IF ELIGIBLE, an intake and educational assessment is conducted in order to determine the participant’s educational goals.

IF INELIGIBLE, the program facilitator will refer the individual to other available services, whenever possible.

Programming

Based on the educational assessment, the participant is placed in one or more of the following programs:

- GED preparation
- Credit recovery and high school correspondence
- Post secondary
- Post secondary and career exploration
- Post-release connections

Evaluation

Ongoing feedback from participants, program facilitators and volunteer coordinators.

Discharge

When a participant is released or transferred from the institution, program facilitators will do their best to ensure continued support for the participant in meeting their educational goals. Files will be closed when appropriate.
